Standards of Conduct

Students are required to abide by the IFBC community standards, even though their personal convictions may not be in accord with all of them. Behaviors which indicate little desire to live in harmony with the standards of the IFBC community or give evidence of disregard for the spirit of the community are sufficient reasons for disciplinary action and/or dismissal.

Students must refrain from possession or use of alcoholic beverages, tobacco, and non-medical narcotics or hallucinogenic drugs (including marijuana); social dancing; stealing; profanity; pornography; all forms of dishonesty; sexual immorality (including premarital sex and homosexuality).

Expectations of Community Life

Indiana Fundamental Bible College expects every member of the community to adhere to the following principles and guidelines, which are to be considered both privileges and responsibilities of life in this Christian community.

Each student should seek to fulfill the following spiritual expectations:

1. Participate actively in a local assembly of believers.
2. Spend time each day in a personal Bible study and prayer.
3. Seek opportunities for Christian service.
4. Act in positive ways, exhibiting such biblical behaviors as love, joy, peace, patience, meekness, self-control, gentleness, and sensitivity to the Holy Spirit - in essence, to present one's self to God as a holy, living sacrifice in all matters of life.

Each student should seek to fulfill the following social expectations:

1. Respect the rights of others in cultivate those attitudes and behaviors which encourage healthy social interaction, including respect for the privacy and property of others.
2. Do right and be fair in dealing with one another; seek actively to help those who are in need.

Each student should seek to fulfill the following intellectual expectations;

1. Develop, with God help, one's full academic potential, understanding that to do so is to be a good steward of what God has given us.
2. Cultivate interest in the fine arts and practiced discretion and restraint and the choice of television programs, music, entertainment, reading material, public activities, and the people and organizations with which one associates.
